

Agreed Report November 6th 2023

The school has received an additional .5 of a teaching position due to an increase in enrolment. This will be used to provide art therapy. The board began its anti-bullying review. This will be communicated to parents, staff and students. A whole school guidance plan was adopted. The board acknowledges the contribution S.flood and the guidance committee have made in the creation of the plan.

Podcasting is increasing in popularity in the school. Examples of students work was shared. These were of a very high standard. The newsroom continue to capture and report on activities that are taking place in the school. The learning support department are working on improving the methods of sharing data. The school has received support from Oide in reaching our Deis Targets.

The library ceiling has been repaired and is now usable. Some snags are yet to be rectified. The school has received a large volume of applications for next August. The school has consistently strong numbers in all years groups.